

Organization of Official Statistics

The President of Statistics Poland is a central body of public administration in the field of statistics, performing his duties with assistance from official statistics services.

Official statistics services are:

- President of Statistics Poland,
- directors of sixteen regional statistical offices subordinated to him,
- service units of official statistics established upon article 27 of the Act of June 29th, 1995 on official statistics.

Statistics Poland (GUS) is an office of government administration that serves the President of Statistics Poland and operates under his direct management.

President manages the Office with assistance Management of Statistics Poland.

- Statistics Poland
- Regional Statistical Offices
- Advisory and opinion-making bodies
- Service units of public statistics
- The Statistical Council
- The Government Population Council
- Polish Statistical Association